A BUSINESS POINTER.

Several Washington merchants are afraid to invite the trade of suburban people for fear it might offend some their city customers who don't conider it "the proper thing" to be seen h a store with country people. They want the cash of country people when the same can be secured without any outward sign of a desire to reach out for it. One of the largest hardware firms in the city recently refused to advertise in the columns of the Ciriten and gave the following reason: "We're not out after suburban business for the reason that we consider the trade of the people of Virginia and Maryland not particularly desirable." Gustave Hartig, the hardware man of 509 and 511 H Street, N. E., is of a different opinion. He wants the trade of country people and he is getting it. When you deal with him you are dealing with a square business man and a Dec. 10-4t
